GST's Impact on Imports & Exports

As you are all aware the GST is finally in place. Along with all other business GST has also impacted Exports and Imports in a substantial manner. Import duty calculations have been changed considerably. Most of the export benefits and incentives are directly affected. The government has been rushing to notify various consequent changes in rules and formats. Foreign Trade Policy (FTP) of India and various schemes which shall help Exporters and Importers. Though the Government has deferred announcement of new FTP till September, but GST will affect all the on-going schemes and benefits under them.

While there may be issues of cash flows and sudden changes, GST may overall and in the long-term help in simplifying the procedures and documentation and better neutralizing of input duties. It is imperative for exporters and importers along with all other businesses to understand the changes and how it impacts them, as also how to manage the change.
