SAHIR LUDHIANVI

SAHIR LUDHIANVI

Sahir Ludhianvi, is an immensely adorable poet and lyricist even after four decades he left us leaving behind his popular and critically acclaimed poems, songs, ghazals and bhajans. His songs still mesmerise the public but his personal life has remained a mystery especially his love life. His incomplete love stories leave a question mark. Many critics have put his love life under scrutiny; some of them term it as an infatuation not love, some term it as an unrequited love which never went both sides, some term it as merely a creative wavelength. It's also worth mentioning that Sahir's songs were always women oriented and also had diverse flavours of nature, a rare creativity that was beyond comparison. Chiraag Creations headed by Chiraag and Shalini's School & Cultural Society headed by Dr Shalini Ved have joined hands to portray Sahir's incomplete love stories through a musical talk show. Narration and melody will go side by side. This show has been successfully performed at Ludhiana a few months back.

A recognized personality in diverse fields pertaining to art and literature. His meritable grip on writing, acting, direction, anchoring and organising literary events is widely known. He is key - man behind 'Adhoore Afsaane', the musical talk show.
