

The training session on GST model law were organized by the Officers from Commercial Tax Department for the various traders, businessmen, Chartered Accountants, lawyers and the members of Merchants' Chamber of U.P. and various trade associations on 26th August, 2016 from 02:30 onward.

Sri Arun Kumar Singh, Additional Commissioner Grade-1 Zone-2, Shri A.K. Pathak, Additional Commissioner Commercial Tax (appeals), Sri Vivekanand Shukla, Dy. Commissioner, Sri Vijay Kumar, Additional Commissioner, from Commercial Tax department enlighten upon GST model law and its various elements.

Shri Vijay Kumar, additional commissioner, gave power point presentation on 'Registration' and 'Return' process of GST model law.

Shri A.K. Pathak, Additional Commissioner Commercial Tax (appeals), explained the Input Tax Credit (I.T.C.) and its procedural aspects in GST model law.

Sri Arun Kumar Singh, Additional Commissioner Grade-1 Zone-2, Commercial Tax, said the seminar on GST shall give a merit to all the merchants and he also said this seminar has been organized for the purpose of collecting the suggestion from merchants for further actions.

In question and answer session, Shri Santosh K. Gupta, Sri Dharmendra Srivastava, Sri Prem Manohar Gupta, Sri Taneja and other participants put forward their the suggestions and questions to the officers from Commercial Tax which were answered by the officers. And the officers also advised that the participants send their suggestions to them through Merchants' Chamber of U.P.

Dr. I.M. Rohatgi, president, Merchants' Chamber of U.P. welcomed the chief speakers, participants and media persons and vote of thanks presented by Sri Padam Kumar Jain, Vice president, Merchants' Chamber of U.P.

The session was conducted by Sri Santosh K. Gupta and he said the seminar has been organized for collecting the suggestions and a memorandum shall send to the State Finance Ministry and Empowered Committee on GST, later on.

Following were present: Sri A.K. Sinha, Secy., Merchants' Chamber of U.P., Sri Satish Chandra Garg, Sri Umesh Pandey, Sri Gyanesh Mishra, businessmen, industrialists, the members of Merchants' Chamber of Uttar Pradesh and other business association, officers from commercial tax departments were also present.

Thanks

Merchants' Chamber of Uttar Pradesh

